  Idaho Water Users Association 34th Annual Water Law and Resource Seminar

  8:00 am - 5:00 pm Boise, Idaho

  Laura Schroeder will be attending the IWUA Water Law and Resource Seminar at the Riverside Hotel in Boise.

  Schroeder Law Offices is a Seminar Networking Break Sponsor

  This year's seminar has a wide variety of speakers and panels dealing with a wide variety of topics including:

  - "Winds of Change" with IWUA Executive Director Paul Arrington;
  - "A New Administration & Western Water Issues by L. Michael Bogert of Parsons Behle & Latimer;
  - "Taking the Lead: An Idaho Pilot Project for Salmon Recovery" by Paul Kline, Idaho Department of Fish & Game;
  - "Columbia River Treaty - Developing the Idaho Position" by John K. Simpson of Barker Rosholt & Simpston LLP & Will Hart, Executive Director Idaho Consumer Owner Utilities Association

  Another highlight of the two-day seminar is scheduled for Thursday, November 10 titled: SNOWMAGEDDON 2017!, It is a full morning program dealing with the huge water year Idaho experienced this year. Topics will include "How Big Was the 2016/2017 Winter Snowpack," "Lessons Learned From Snowmageddon 2017," and "Flooding & Your Facilities: What is the Law." Also scheduled is a special presentation from an official from the California Department of Water Resources Security and Emergency Management Program that deals with the Oroville Dam crisis earlier this year.
